

Hannah White

Student Body Vice President

Hannah White, the current Student Body Vice President of the University of South Carolina, is a junior finance and marketing double major in the University of South Carolina Honors College.

Hannah came to the University of South Carolina with an eagerness to integrate herself on campus and to serve as a catalyst for inclusion and equity through that involvement. In order to see these improvements on campus, Hannah has gotten involved with a multitude of organizations.

She has been involved in Student Government since her freshman year. Firstly, as a member of the Freshman Council on the Inclusion and Equity Committee. As a sophomore, Hannah served as the Director of Programming under the 2019-2020 Student Body Vice President Sophie Davish.

In addition to her roles in Student Government, Hannah is also a member of Greek Life in two aspects. She is both a member of Alpha Kappa Psi Professional Business Fraternity and Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated.

Lastly, Hannah serves as a University Ambassador, where her passion for the University of South Carolina is displayed as she educates prospective students from all walks of life on the experiences and resources UofSC has to offer.
