Alex Harrell is a brother of Pi Kappa Phi Fraternity, where he has served as the Risk Management Chairman. He has also served as Vice President of Programming on the Interfraternity Council and been involved in Student Government as a Student Senator and as Director of the State Lobbying Agency. His goal is to cultivate an environment that embraces the idea of coming together to build a better community, so we can have an even greater tomorrow. Additionally, he is a firm believer in the power of positive thinking and creating lasting relationships. Developing strong relationships is the foundation of everything he does, both personally and professionally. He looks forward to working together with the entire university community to ensure that we enact his platform goals and create tangible change throughout this term. The University of South Carolina's future is bright, and Alex is excited to get to work. Together, We Can.
